

ALEXANDER P. TURNER, PhD

(1940–2016)

A BULLETED LIFE

- Ph.D. in 1971 from the University of Oklahoma
- Post-doc in 1972 at M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute
- Physics Director in various locations:
 - Little Rock AR, Sacramento CA, Oklahoma City OK, Fort Worth TX.
- Self employed consultant (Medical Physics Associates) for 30+ years
- Treasurer of AAPM
- Fellow of ACHP (President and Secretary)
- Active member of ASTRO, HPS, SROA
- Founding member of ACHP and WIMP
- Instrumental in creation of JACHP
- Consultant to industry in 'retirement' years
- Wife Karen, two sons, and grandsons

TRAITS

- Consummate professional

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field
- Engaged young students

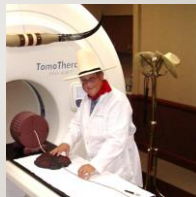

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field
- Engaged young students
- Mentored young members

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field
- Engaged young students
- Mentored young members
- Pragmatic in all things

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field
- Engaged young students
- Mentored young members
- Pragmatic in all things
- A true southern gentleman

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field
- Engaged young students
- Mentored young members
- Pragmatic in all things
- A true southern gentleman

TRAITS

- Consummate professional
- Dedicated to family
- Committed to the field
- Engaged young students
- Mentored young members
- Pragmatic in all things
- A true southern gentleman

ALEXANDER P. TURNER, PhD

(1940–2016)

Husband, father, colleague, friend... physicist

FAVORITE QUOTE

- I don't know if this was his favorite, but I heard it more than once from him, and have seen it more than once in his presentations.

- "Good judgement comes from experience, and a lot of that comes from bad judgement."

Will Rogers
