

Outline Handout

Potential Educational and Clinical Barriers in the Implementation of the Discontinuation of Patient Gonadal and Fetal Shielding in Medical Imaging

Nina Kowalczyk, Ph.D., R.T.(R)(CT)(QM), FASRT, FAEIRS

- I. Educational preparation for Radiographers
 - a. Associate degree- entry level
 - b. Baccalaureate degree – entry level
 - c. Post- primary certification education

- II. Standardized Curricula for AS & BS programs
 - a. Role of American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT)
 - b. Role of Joint Review Committee for Education in Radiologic Technology (JRCERT)
 - c. Barriers to implementation shielding changes

- III. Radiographer Practice Standards
 - a. Role of American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT)
 - b. Role of American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT)
 - c. Barriers to implementation shielding changes

- IV. National Certification and State Licensure
 - a. Role of American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT)
 - b. State licensing requirements for radiographers
 - c. Barriers to implementation shielding changes

- V. Questions and Answers