Radiological Society of North America

Partnership

RSNA is proud to partner with AAPM to deliver the finest in science and education through leadership, fellowship, and quality resources.

Physics Residencies

- We need more medical physicists
 - Especially for diagnostic imaging
- We need more CAMPEP-approved residency training programs
- RSNA has joined AAPM in providing “start up” funding

Patient Safety Initiatives

- The Alliance for Radiation Safety in Pediatric Imaging: Founded by Society for Pediatric Radiology, AAPM, ACR, and ASRT; nearly 70 Alliance organizations
- Joint Task Force on Adult Radiation Protection: A partnered effort of RSNA, AAPM, ACR, and ASRT

RSNA: Celebrating 100 Years

- 1915: Western Roentgen Society formed and first annual meeting held
- 1919: Name changed to RSNA
- 1958: Founding of AAPM
- 1962: RSNA grants membership to AAPM members
- 2015: RSNA celebrates its 100th anniversary

RSNA 2015

- Hundreds of courses
- Thousands of digital posters
- 700+ exhibitors
- FREE admission for RSNA and AAPM members
- Credits transferred to CAMPEP for MPCEC

Physics at RSNA Annual Meeting

- AAPM/RSNA tutorials on equipment selection
- Courses on medical physics principles
- Cases of the Day
- Digital posters

RSNA Education Year-round

- 500+ courses available online all year
- RSNA/AAPM Physics Modules
- Cases of the Day
- RSNA/AAPM Physics Tutorials for Residents
